

PROCLAMATION

*Hoover Board of Education
National Custodial Workers Day - October*

Whereas, Custodians play an integral role with regard to the culture, climate, and overall success of a school; and

Whereas, Custodians work tirelessly to ensure the cleanliness of campuses, playing a key role in engineering optimal learning environments for students; and

Whereas, Custodians often go above and beyond their duties, building rapport with students, teachers, staff members, and administrators; and

Whereas, Custodians find unique and innovative ways to provide service to their work locations, often discovering new and efficient ways with regard to their duties; and

Whereas, Hoover City Schools employs scores of Custodians at all school campuses district-owned facilities; and

Whereas, our district honors and recognizes the contributions of all school Custodians across Hoover City Schools on this very special day;

Now, therefore, be it proclaimed that the Hoover Board of Education joins other school districts, businesses, government agencies and various entities in proclaiming October 2nd as National Custodial Workers Day.

---

Dr. Kathy L. Murphy
Superintendent

---

Mr. Craig P. Kelley
President, Hoover Board of Education